FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ARMED ROBBERY AT NAMCOR SOWETO SERVICE STATION

The National Petroleum Corporation of Namibia, NAMCOR, confirms that an armed robbery occurred yesterday at the Soweto Service Station in Katutura, Windhoek.

The Soweto Service Station operates under a Dealer-Owned Dealer-Operated (DODO) model, whereby a dealer independently owns and manages the site. NAMCOR is the sole supplier of fuel and branding services to the respective dealers. We can confirm that NAMCOR has not suffered financial loss due to this incident.

NAMCOR expresses sympathy and support to the dealer affected by this unfortunate event. The relevant authorities have been notified and are conducting a full investigation. NAMCOR also provides the necessary assistance to the dealer and remains committed to prioritising the safety and well-being of our dealers, customers, and staff.

We thank the public for understanding and encourage anyone with information about the incident to contact the Namibian Police Force.
